MONDAY, ARPIL 25, 1768.

CHARLES-TOWN, Printed at PETER TIMOTHY's (the OLDEST) Office, in BROAD-STREET.

From the Boſton Evening-Poſt, March 21.

The Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives in their late Seſſion, preferred a humble, dutiful and loyal Petition to the KING; and alſo forwarded Letters to the Earl of Shelburne, General Conway, Marquis of Rockingham, Earl of Chatham, the Lords of the Treaſury, their Agent, &c. repreſenting their Grievances, relative to the late Act for impoſing Duties in America and earneſtly entreating their Aid and Patronage.—Copies of which we have obtained and ſhall preſent them to our Readers.——

The Petition to the KING is as follows, viz.

An humble PETITION to the King's moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

YOUR Majeſty's faithful ſubjects, the repreſentatives of your province of the Maſſachuſetts Bay, with the warmeſt ſentiments of loyalty, duty and affection, beg leave to approach the throne; and to lay at your Majeſty's feet their humble ſupplications in behalf of your diſtreſſed ſubjects the people of the province.

Our anceſtors, the firſt ſettlers of this country having with the royal conſent, which we humbly apprehend involves the conſent of the nation, and at their own great expence, migrated from the mother kingdom, took poſſeſſion of this land, at that time a wilderneſs, the right whereof they had purchaſed for a valuable conſideration of the council eſtabliſhed at Plymouth, to whom it had been granted by your Majeſty's royal predeceſſor King JAMES the firſt.

From the principles of loyalty to their ſovereign, which will warm the breaſt of a true ſubject, though remote they acknowledge their allegiance to the Engliſh crown: And your Majeſty will allow us with all humility to ſay, that they and their poſterity, even to this time have afforded frequent and ſignal proofs of their zeal for the honour and ſervice of their Prince, and their firm attachment to the parent country.

With toil and fatigue, perhaps not to be conceived by their brethren and fellow ſubjects at home, and with the conſtant peril of their lives, from a numerous, ſavage and warlike race of men, they began their ſettlement, and GOD proſpered them.

They obtained a CHARTER from King CHARLES the firſt; wherein his Majeſty was pleaſed to grant to them and their heirs and aſſigns forever, all the lands therein deſcribed, to hold of him and his royal ſucceſſors in free and common ſoccage; which we humbly conceive is as abſolute an eſtate as the ſubject can hold under the crown. And in the ſame Charter were granted to them and their poſterity, all the rights, liberties, privileges and immunities of natural ſubjects, born within the realm.

This Charter they enjoyed, having as we moſt humbly conceive punctually complied with all the conditions of it, till in an unhappy time it was vacated.——But after the revolution, when King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of glorious and bleſſed memory, were eſtabliſhed on the throne: In that happy reign, when to the joy of the nation and its dependencies, the Crown was ſettled in your Majeſty's illuſtrious family, the inhabitants of this province ſhared in the common bleſſing. Then they were indulged with another Charter; in which their Majeſties were pleaſed for themſelves, their heirs and ſucceſſors, to grant and confirm to them as ample eſtate in the land or territories as was granted by the former Charter, together with the other moſt eſſential rights and liberties contained therein; the principal of which, is that which your Majeſty's ſubjects within the realm have ever held a moſt ſacred right, of being taxed only by repreſentatives of their own free election.

Thus bleſſed with the rights of Engliſhmen through the indulgent ſmiles of heaven, and under the auſpicious government of your Majeſty and your royal predeceſſors, your people of this province have been happy, and your Majeſty has acquired a numerous increaſe of loyal ſubjects, a large extent of dominion, and a new and inexhauſtible ſource of commerce, wealth and glory.

With great ſincerity, permit us to aſſure your Majeſty that your ſubjects of this province, ever have and ſtill continue to acknowledge your Majeſty's high court of parliament the ſupreme legiſlative power of the whole empire. The ſuperintending authority of which is clearly admitted in all caſes, that can conſiſt with the fundamental rights of nature and the conſtitution; to which your Majeſty's happy ſubjects in all parts of your empire conceive they have a juſt and equitable claim.

It is with the deepeſt concern that your humble ſuppliants would repreſent to your Majeſty, that your parliament, the rectitude of whoſe intentions is never to be queſtioned, has thought proper to paſs divers acts impoſing taxes on your Majeſty's ſubjects in America, with the ſole and expreſs purpoſe of raiſing a revenue. If your Majeſty's ſubjects here ſhall be deprived of the honour and privilege of voluntarily contributing their aid to your Majeſty, in ſupporting your government and authority in the province, and defending and ſecuring your rights and territories in America, which they have always hitherto done with the utmoſt chearfulneſs: If theſe acts of parliament ſhall remain in force; and your Majeſty's commons in Great-Britain, ſhall continue to exerciſe the power of granting the property of their fellow ſubjects in this province, your people muſt then regret their unhappy fate in having only the name left of free ſubjects.

With all humility we conceive that a repreſentation of your Majeſty's ſubjects of this province in the parliament, conſidering their local circumſtances, is utterly impracticable: Your Majeſty has heretofore been graciouſly pleaſed, to order your requiſitions to be laid before the repreſentatives of your people in the general aſſembly, who have never failed to afford the neceſſary aid to the extent of their ability, and ſometimes beyond it; and it would be ever grievous to your Majeſty's faithful ſubjects to be called upon in a way, that ſhould appear to them to imply a diſtruſt of their moſt ready and willing compliance.

Under the moſt ſenſible impreſſion of your Majeſty's wiſe and paternal care for the remoteſt of your faithful ſubjects, and in full dependence on the royal declarations in the Charter of this province, we moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to take our unhappy circumſtances under your royal conſideration, and afford us relief in ſuch manner as in your Majeſty's great wiſdom and clemency ſhall ſeem meet.

American Intelligence.

ST. JOHN's (in Antigua) JANUARY 23.

ON Thurſday laſt arrived here the ſnow Rodney, Nicholas Purdy, from London, bound for Maryland: She left England the latter end of Sept. with 92 convicts on board, (11 of whom died on the paſſage) and after beating ſeveral weeks on the coaſt of North-America, they were forced to bear away for this iſland. It is impoſſible to deſcribe the diſtreſſes of this crew; the poor wretches were reduced to the neceſſity of eating their ſhoes and breeches to ſuſtain life, not having proviſions of any kind to ſubſiſt on.

BOSTON, February 29.

Paragraph of a letter from a merchant in Briſtol, dated in November laſt——"The gentlemen who are concerned here in the manufacture of window glaſs, and other kinds of glaſs ware, have been up to London with ſeveral of our merchants here to endeavour, if poſſible, to get the duty on glaſs taken off, but they have found it impracticable, and are therefore returned.——The government are determined to have a revenue raiſed upon ſeveral kinds of goods exported to America, and it is generally thought, both in London and here, that in the ſpring of the year they will lay further duties upon many ſorts of goods exported to America."

March 3. The aſſembly of New-York have paſſed an act in their late ſeſſion, to impower Sir William Baker, and Robert Charles, Eſq; to pay for the ſtatues of his Majeſty, and the Right Hon. William Pitt, Eſq; now Lord Chatham; and alſo, for a piece of plate to be preſented to John Sargent, Eſq.

We are informed that Meſſrs. Potter, Foot, and Chin, are gone out to make further diſcoveries to the weſtward of Michilimackinac.

March 7. We are informed from good authority, that in the pariſh of Stoughtonham, there is lately diſcovered a large body of very rich mountain ore, that runs in large veins, and is taken out of the earth in blocks, of which, ſome are of near a ton weight. Part thereof, upon proof, at different forges, is found to produce an uncommon proportion of the rougheſt and beſt ſort of iron, ſuppoſed to be at leaſt equal in quality to any heretofore produced in Britiſh America.

The late ſeſſions of the general aſſembly held from the 31ſt of December laſt to the 3d of March inſtant; the whole expence of the travel and attendance of the members during that time, we are informed, amounted to about 2000 l. L. M.

Our advices from England are that the late duties and multiplication of cuſtom houſe officers, &c. were the effects of the late C——s T——d's eloquence, and the machinations and miſrepreſentations of others:—That the eyes of the more ſenſible and diſintereſted are opened, who now ſee that American affairs muſt be put upon the footing they were before G——e G——le's chimeras had diſtracted them:—That our late agreement to promote induſtry and manufactures, being the effect of neceſſity, was highly applauded, and as they add, muſt work our deliverance in one ſhape or another, if duly adhered to by the colonies:—That the merchants and manufacturers were greatly alarmed and diſtreſſed by the decline of trade, and would ſoon exert themſelves in our favour, and are highly diſguſted that a multitude of officers, whoſe buſineſs was before done by one or two ſurveyor-generals, ſhould be ſent here to ſuck out the very life and ſpirits of trade:—That the more knowing people at home, are in great concern at the preſent aſpect of national affairs, and mention things not ſo proper to be hinted in a news-paper:—That a new parliament was ſoon to be called, and the fate of Britain depended much upon a good or bad election:—That corruption and extravagance greatly prevailed, notwithſtanding the moſt diſtreſſing ſcarcity:—That multitudes of manufacturers were ready to partake of our plenty, if they had but the means to tranſport themſelves to the colonies:—That good men in the nation wiſhed and prayed that America might ſtill continue a land of liberty, civil and religious, that ſo it might be a proper aſylum for our brethren in ſome future period, which they feared was not far diſtant.——

March 12. There was no mention made of American affairs in the houſe of commons, from the 14th to the 27th of January; but the towns of Leeds, Wakefield, and others, where coarſe woollens are manufactured have petitioned the parliament for relief, on account of the great decline of the demand for their manufactures.

March 14. The London prints mention the death of Sir Harry Frankland, Bart. at Bath: He was formerly collector of his Majeſty's cuſtoms for this port, and ſince his Majeſty's conſul at Liſbon.—The title now deſcends to Thomas Frankland, Eſq; vice-admiral of his Majeſty's fleet.

March 21. Captain Walter, of Lebanon, in Connecticut, clothier, we are informed, dreſſed in the year 1767, 5925 yards of woollen and linen cloth, beſides 300 yards manufactured in his own family.

HALIFAX, (in Nova-Scotia) March 3.

On Monday arrived the ſloop Sylvia, Captain Wales, in 48 hours from Boſton.

A report prevails here that three more regiments are to be ſtationed in this province; and that the works on the Citadel-hill are ſoon expected to be carried on.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) March 5.

A circular letter from the Maſſachuſetts houſe of repreſentatives, to the lower houſe of aſſembly of this colony, on the important ſubject of the common rights of theſe colonies, was read in the houſe laſt week, and much approved of. A committee was appointed to take the ſame into conſideration.

We are told that his honour the Governor, in order to put an end to the unhappy diſputes, which have ſo long ſubſiſted in this colony, has propoſed to the aſſembly a coalition and union in the following manner, viz. that Mr. Ward, and his friends, ſhall nominate a governor from among thoſe in the intereſt of Mr. Hopkins, who are to appoint a deputy-governor of the friends of the firſt-named gentleman, and ſo on alternately with all the aſſiſtants. But whether theſe propoſitions will be complied with or not, is yet uncertain: They are thought to be ſo equal and generous, that they cannot with propriety, be rejected.

NEWPORT, March 21.

Laſt friday, being the anniverſary of the repeal of the ſtamp-act, the day was celebrated with public exhibitions of joy.——A flag was diſplayed on the top of the noble wide ſpreading tree of Liberty, and a copper-plate affixed to its venerable trunk, in the room of that which was infamouſly taken from it the 25th of Auguſt laſt.—A flag was hoiſted at Fort-George, at Liberty-Maſt, on the Point; and the ſhipping in the harbour diſplayed their colours. The bells rung, and every thing wore a joyous aſpect.——In the evening, rockets were diſcharged at the tree of Liberty, at Liberty maſt, and at the houſe of the hon. John Mawdſley, Eſq; where a number of gentlemen were politely entertained, and the glaſs circulated in honour to the Britiſh and American patriots—Many other gentlemen aſſembled in different parts of the town, to commemorate the glorious EIGHTEENTH of MARCH; and the whole day was ſpent in decent feſtivity.

March 22. Before the ſtamp-act, America may be ſaid to have been politically blind; the impoſing that, ſerved to give them ſight enough to ſee men as trees walking; but this laſt act has made them ſee clearly, that nothing will ſave them from total ruin and ſlavery, but induſtry, œconomy, and manufactures. This ſpirit of induſtry ſeems at preſent to be univerſal. Whole towns have entered into mutual covenants to do all that lies in their power to diſcourage the uſe of foreign ſuperfluities, and to encourage the raiſing of wool and flax, and the manufacturing it into cloth. This town, in particular, at a full meeting, have voted, Nemine contradicente, to purchaſe no more of the ſuperfluous articles mentioned in the reſolve of the town of Boſton. And for the encouragement of home manufactures, the reſpectable Taylors of this town, had a meeting on the 18th inſtant, when they agreed to work four-pence lawful money per day cheaper in making up the manufactures of their country, than thoſe of Europe. They alſo reſolved, to have 25 per cent. more than cuſtomary for making any garment of velvet, ſilk, or broad cloth, of above 10s. ſterling per yard.

NEW-YORK, MARCH 7.

Letters from London mention, that American affairs will be taken into conſideration on the 16th of January, immediately after the meeting of parliament. No perſon whatever is to be admitted, and the doors are to be kept ſhut during the whole time of the deliberation.

Extract of a letter from London, Dec. 1, 1767.

"Mr. G——le's enmity againſt the colonies ſtill continues as violent as ever—When the debates on the king's ſpeech happened, he tired even his friends with a tedious harangue againſt America: Laſt friday he produced a Boſton gazette, which he ſaid, denied the legiſlative authority of Great-Britain, and was treaſonable, rebellious, &c. and moved it might be read, and that the houſe would take notice of it, but it being moved, on the other hand, that the conſideration of it ſhould be poſtponed for ſix months, it was carried without a diviſion; and as it was known that the parliament will expire before that time, it was equivalent to a total rejection of the motion.—The D— of B——d moved in vain for the conſideration of the ſame paper in the houſe of lords.——Theſe are favourable ſymptoms of the preſent diſpoſition of parliament towards America, which I hope no conduct of theirs will give juſt cauſe of altering.—— The preſent miniſtry are well diſpoſed towards America, and are as good a ſett in every reſpect, as you can reaſonably hope for."

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.

Extract of a letter from London, dated December 29, 1767.

"The reſolutions of the Boſton people, concerning trade, &c. make a great noiſe here. Parliament has not yet taken notice of them, but the news-papers are in full cry againſt America. Col. O——, told me at court laſt Sunday, that I could not conceive how much the friends of America were run upon and hurt by them, and how much the G—nv——ns triumphed.

"Mentioning Col. O——, reminds me of ſomething that paſſed at the beginning of this ſeſſion in the houſe, between him and Mr. G——. The latter had been raving againſt America, as traiterous, rebellious, &c. when the former, who has always been its firm friend, ſtood up and gravely ſaid, That in reading the Roman hiſtory, he found it was a cuſtom with that wiſe and magnanimous people, whenever the Senate was informed of any diſcontent in the provinces, to ſend two or three of their body into the diſcontented province, to enquire into the grievances complained of, and report the ſtate of things to the Senate, that mild meaſures might be uſed to remedy what was amiſs, before any ſevere ſteps were taken to enforce obedience. That this example he thought worthy our imitation in the preſent ſtate of our colonies; for he did ſo far agree with the honourable gentleman who ſpoke juſt before him, as to allow there were great diſcontents among them; he ſhould therefore beg leave to move, that two or three members of parliament might be appointed to go over to New-England on that ſervice. And that it might not be ſuppoſed he was for impoſing burthens on any, that he would not be willing to ſhare himſelf, he did at the ſame time declare his own willingneſs, if the houſe ſhould think fit to appoint them, to go over thither with that honourable gentleman. Upon this there was a great laugh, which continued ſome time, and was rather increaſed by Mr. G——'s aſking, "will the gentleman engage that I ſhall be ſafe there? Can I be aſſured that I ſhall be allowed to come back again to make the report?——As ſoon as the laugh was ſo far ſubdued, as that Mr. O—— could be heard again, he added, "I cannot abſolutely engage for the honourable gentleman's ſafe return;——but if he goes thither on this ſervice, I am ſtrongly of opinion, the event will contribute greatly to the future quiet of both countries."——On which the laugh was renewed and redoubled."

By letters from Fort-Pitt, of the 14th of laſt month, we learn that all was well there.

March 24. By a Dutch veſſel arrived at St. Euſtatia from Holland, it was reported, that that iſland, with its dependencies, will be in the hands of the Engliſh in the courſe of the preſent year, in lieu of ſome German dominions, to be ceded to the ſtates: That ſome propoſals have been made by his Daniſh Majeſty, to give St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John's for ſome part of the German dominions belonging to the crown of Great-Britain: That a noble Lord in England, had given it as his opinion the only way to counterbalance the French having Hiſpaniola, is for us to have Porto Rico in our own hands. And that a negotiation will ſpeedily be ſet on foot for that purpoſe.

We hear that a new government will be or is now eſtabliſhed on the Muſquito ſhore, John Gregg, Eſq; to be governor.

From Lancaſter we learn, that two men are taken up and committed to that goal, for being concerned, with ſome others, in forcing two letters on his Majeſty's ſervice from two Soldiers who were bringing them from Fort-Lyttelton to the poſt-office there; after reading them, they deſtroyed one, and returned the other. This villainous affair was perpetrated at a tavern about fifteen miles from Lancaſter.
